50 Years of Light Gauge Precision.

Heyco Metals has been on a roll since 1969... and there's no stopping us now!

Stampers, fabricators and manufacturers have relied on Heyco Metals for quality, light-gauge coil and strip for half a century. Our high-precision copper, copper alloys and stainless steel have helped us build a reputation that is as pristine as our products.

Past successes don't stop us from moving forward to serve you even better. Look to Heyco Metals for quick turnaround of custom orders, rolled right here in the USA.

- Stainless gauges as low as .0015"
